Tai Chi: Healing in Motion

Mondays at 9 a.m.

The art of Tai Chi will help you learn to use the power of movement to boost your immune system, find strengths, and meet the challenges a significant illness brings. Tai Chi Classes are led by our Tai Chi instructor; Erlinda R. Nye. The low-impact exercise in this class involves gentle, slow, deliberate, flowing, and graceful movements in coordination with the breath. Tai chi practice reduces stress, increases flexibility and muscle strength, improves balance, and promotes serenity. Participants may start at any time. The free class is open to any individuals with a cancer diagnosis, their caregivers, and the health professionals who care for them. To register or for more information please call 985-249-2383.

Music and Relaxation Therapy

First and Third Monday of the month at 1 p.m.

Music Therapy groups are lead by Jennifer Bobeck MMT, MT-BC, LPC, NCC. Learn basic and easy relaxation techniques and how music therapy along with guided imagery can help decrease feelings of anxiety, tension, and pain. This can be helpful for patients and caregivers during treatment and beyond. Participants may start at any time. The free class is open to any individuals with a cancer diagnosis & their caregiver. To register or for more information please call 985-249-2383.

Art Therapy

Second Tuesday of the month at 10 a.m.

Our art therapy classes are led by a local artist and social worker Madalyn (Maddy) Goff. Creating art during cancer treatment can be therapeutic and healing. This group class will allow cancer patients to create art as a way to become self-aware and express complicated emotions. Art Therapy is an effective way to cope with cancer symptoms, stress, and difficult experiences. The free class is open to any individuals with a cancer diagnosis & their caregiver. To register or for more information please call 985-249-2383.

Group Support Session

First Tuesday of the Month at 11 a.m.
